WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 12, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:27 and sets 6:36. High water at 1:14 a. m. and 1:44 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section cloudy tonight and Thursday, with occasional rain; light variable winds, becoming fresh easterly.

The Late Dual Tragedy.

Baron Mayor des Planches, the Italian Ambassador, has asked the State Department to ascertain the circumstances of the death of Joseph Leonto, an Italian workman, one of the victims of a recent double tragedy at Lorton, Fairfax county. Immediately upon the receipt Monday by the State Department of the note of the Ambassador Assistant Secretary of State Ade called upon Governor Montague, of Virginia, for a report in the case, giving him a copy of the letter received from Ambassador des Planches. While it is yet too early to say just how serious this affair may prove to be and what attitude will be assumed by the Italian government, the case is regarded seriously by the State Department and by the members of the Italian Embassy here. Baron des Planches reports to the State Department that he personally came to this city last Saturday for the purpose of making inquiries into the manner of Leonto's death. Unable to get the facts here, he detailed one of the secretaries of the Italian Embassy to go to Lorton and make a careful investigation. The report of this attaché has convinced Senator des Planches that Leonto met his death as a result of "mob violence" and that the report to the effect that he killed himself when closely pressed by a deputy sheriff and posse was false. According to the Italian Ambassador, Leonto's wounds were of such a character that he could not possibly have inflicted them upon himself, one bullet wound being through his right, or pistol, hand. The officials of the State Department are rather at a loss what to do in the matter, even should Governor Montague report that the man was killed by the people of Lorton, as alleged by Senator des Planches.

Enforcing the Law.

The question of obstructing sidewalks was again in the Police Court this morning. A King street merchant was before the court for allowing five barrels of oil to remain out over night. The merchant stated that if he had to remove the barrels every night he would have to stop handling oil, as he was without an adjacent yard and had no room within his store. The Court held that the sidewalks and streets were the property of the public and that the public was entitled to a free and unobstructed use of every part of the same. Hence the sidewalks and streets must be kept clear except, of course, that merchants would be allowed use of the same for purposes of loading and unloading merchandise. For this purpose a reasonable obstruction for a reasonable time will be allowed. Several cases of this nature have been heard recently and each had been decided on its merits. Complaint had been subsequently made that when a reasonable obstruction for purposes of displaying goods had been allowed the merchants in some instances had overreached the reasonable mark and occupied nearly all of the sidewalk, so yesterday Mayor Paff, City Attorney Boothe and Justice Caton held a conference and went over the matter thoroughly. The law as set forth in the decision this morning is perfectly clear and it was decided to enforce it strictly. The efforts of the authorities to enforce the law referred to above are producing more satisfactory conditions, and several places in the city heretofore blocked with goods, furniture, boxes, etc., are now devoid of the same.

To Extend the Sewer.

Mr. Burke last night introduced a resolution in the Board of Aldermen directing the Corporation Attorney to draw an ordinance providing for an extension of the Royal street sewer from Franklin to Church street, a distance of three squares. The resolution was referred to the committee on streets. At present the sewage of a large portion of the city is discharged at Royal and Franklin streets, and the effluvia from the same in warm weather has been a nuisance and a menace to health for a long time. About nine years ago the Mayor called the attention of Council to the fact that while Council was passing laws imposing fines upon people for having nuisances on their premises the city was maintaining a wholesale nuisance at the point described. Council at that time appropriated $40 for the purpose of constructing an open trough a few yards farther south, which in no way lessened the nuisance. By the plan proposed by Mr. Burke the sewer will extend to a point where the flowing and ebbing of the tide will carry off the drainage.

The Fishery.

There is some anxiety manifested as to the outcome of the present fishing season. There was a comparatively good run of shad and herring about a week ago, but receipts have fallen off and prices are stiff for herring, while shad are advancing. The change in the weather has proven a setback to the fishermen. There is, however, optimism displayed by a few engaged in fishing operations who believe conditions will soon improve, and that an average number of fish will be caught eventually. The Alexandria gilliers are catching but few shad, although the local seiners continue to land many perch and other pan fish.

Emancipation Celebration.

The Alexandria Emancipation Association met last night to further the arrangements for the celebration of the 42nd anniversary of Lincoln's proclamation in this city Monday, May 15. True Reformers' Hall will be used at night for the closing exercises of the day, where the emancipation queen will be crowned at 10 o'clock. Frank Williams was chosen grand chief marshal of the parade. A baseball tournament will be also one of the features of the day.

To Examine the Building.

A resolution was introduced in Council last night, requesting the committee on streets and general laws to report to the next meeting of Council the condition of the Bradock House. There is apprehension among some of the city fathers concerning the safety and sanitary condition of the building.

Personal.

Mr. J. Randolph Caton says he is not considering the question of becoming a candidate for Corporation Attorney and will not be a candidate for that office. Mr. H. F. McKenney, not Mr. C. H. McKenney, purchased the lot on Lee street, between Wolfe and Wilkes, at auction yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McCormick have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaretta Holmes McCormick, and Mr. Charles Fenton McGuire, which is to take place at Grace Episcopal Church, Berryville, on Wednesday evening, the 26th instant.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Hutchinson, who was recently appointed presiding elder for Washington district, Baltimore conference, M. E. Church South, will make his home in Alexandria during his term of office.

Mr. Samuel P. Fisher, a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Third ward, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Corporation Attorney to succeed Mr. Gardner L. Boothe.

Mr. J. D. H. Lunt is quite ill at his home on Columbus street.

The many friends of Rev. J. H. S. Ewell will be glad to learn that he has been reappointed to the charge of the M. P. Church in this city, of which he has been the popular pastor for the past three years.

City Attorney Boothe is confined to his home with tonsillitis.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Charles Schreiner took place from the residence on south Fairfax street this afternoon. Numbers of relatives and acquaintances attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church. The pallbearers were: Messrs. George Brown, Fred Kaus, Robert Gronau, D. H. Appich and J. T. Henshaw.

Members of Alexandria Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and of Alexandria Council, K. A. A., were also among the pallbearers. The first-named order attended in a body, and a delegation of the Royal Arcanum was present.

The remains of the late E. H. Delehay, who died in Baltimore a day or two ago, arrived here at 11:02 this morning on the Washington-Southern Railway. They were met at the depot by Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, of which the deceased had been a member, and escorted to the cemetery, where the services were held and the interment made. The pallbearers were members of Alexandria-Washington and Andrew Jackson Lodges. A number of relatives and friends of the deceased attended the funeral.

The remains of Mrs. Rosie Wagner, who died yesterday morning at her home on Prince street, were forwarded today to Mercersburg, Pa., by Mr. B. Wheatley.

The funeral of Susan Brent, colored, took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. Rev. Father Cutler officiated.

Building Association Meeting.
At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Alexandria Perpetual Building Fund Association the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Zoro Hill, president; Justin Schneider, secretary and treasurer; W. P. Graves, Henry Baader, Leopold Ruben, Frank M. Hill and C. W. Howell, directors; Lewis McK. Bell, Wm. E. Latham and Daniel Ruben, trustees; Jno. D. Normyley, James R. Caton and Braxton B. Smith, examining committee. The board of directors declared a semi-annual dividend of the 3rd series, $7.50; 4th series, $3, and 5th series, $2.50 per share.

Preparing for the Ferry.
Manager John Callahan of the Norfolk and Washington Company, accompanied by an architect and a draughtsman, visited the old ferry line dock in Washington Monday and outlined his plans for the rebuilding of the dock which, it is said, will be commenced in about a week. The slip in this city will also be rebuilt during the next month or six weeks, and the terminals at both ends will be completely modernized and brought up to the requirements of an efficient ferry service.

Sharps and Flats.

The opera of Fra Diavolo will be given by "Sharps and Flats" assisted by the Old Dominion Boat Club on Monday and Tuesday evenings, May 1st and 2nd, seats for which are now on sale. The cast is as follows: Fra Diavolo, Mr. Harry Stevens; Lord Alcazar, Mr. Wm. Clabough; Lady Alcazar, Miss Edna Scott Smith; Lorenzo, Mr. L. F. Randolph, Jr.; Matteo, Mr. J. Harris Franklin; Zerlina, Miss Myra Lee Cavalier; Beppo, Mr. Harry B. Caton; Giacomo, Mr. George H. Evans.

Royal Arcanum.

Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, held an interesting meeting last night. Three candidates were initiated and two applications for membership received. The Grand Council meets within the next few days, and the representatives from Alexandria Council received some minor instructions. This council is now in a flourishing condition, and the interest in the organization was never greater. The attendance last night was large.

Organ Recital.

Mr. S. Frederick Smith, of Washington, will give an organ recital in the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow, (Thursday) evening at eight o'clock. He will be assisted by Mr. Harrison L. Moore, tenor, who will sing the air, "Comfort Ye My People," from Handel's Messiah, and "My Redeemer and My Lord" from the Golden Legend, by Buck. The congregation and friends are cordially invited.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:
Ellis Day, and Temple Carter, both colored, arrested by Officer Bettis for disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Change in the Weather.

The weather yesterday and last night was sultry, and rain, thunder and lightning followed toward the close of the day. The rain continued at intervals throughout the night. Today a northeast wind has prevailed with threatening weather. The temperature has fallen materially.

The Modern Woodmen of America will meet tonight.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Washington and Virginia Real Estate Corporation of Alexandria county. The capital stock is $100,000. C. H. Livingstone, of Ekins, W. Va., is president, R. H. Lynn, of Washington, vice president, and F. C. Smith, of Alexandria, secretary and treasurer.

Challenge in Poll Tax Cases.

A publication from the attorney general's office holds that if any citizen or judge of election suspects that any man's poll taxes were not personally paid, that is, out of his own means, it is a duty to challenge him, when he may be examined under oath.

Fire Warden.

A meeting of the Board of Fire Wardens was held Monday night. The meeting was called to consider certain matters and being unable to arrive at any conclusion the board adjourned until tonight.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Evangelist W. Mayfield, of Kentucky, will fill the pulpit of the Free Methodist Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Laurie, only daughter of Mr. Wm. B. Price, formerly of this city, died of typhoid fever in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a few days ago.

Home telephones have been placed in the places of business of J. H. Mansfield, Cogswell Bros., (at Fishtown) and Preston Cockey.

Mr. J. D. Knight has been given the contract for remodeling the buildings on the north side of King street east of Washington. A new front will be put in the building.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of Eliza A. Seaton vs. Wm. Parker et al., a decree was entered confirming the sale of certain property to Mrs. Emma T. Roche.

In the list of the officers elected at the Sunday School of M. E. Church South, on Monday night, the name of Mr. Adrian Tomlin, Assistant Librarian, was inadvertently omitted.

A valuable mare belonging to Mr. James McCuen which was struck by a Southern Railway engine near the intersection of King and Henry streets March 13, died yesterday from the injuries received.

Fried clams, 30c per dozen. Soup every day. Chas. H. Zimmerman, Market Space.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The building occupied by Horace Ingalls & Sons, dealer in hay and seed, No. 440-442 west 34th street, New York, was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Six masked men entered the jail at Seneca, Minn., early this morning to release a prisoner and in an encounter with Sheriff Poag, shot that officer dead. The men made their escape. Governor Vardaman will offer a large reward for the capture of the guilty parties.

Seven men fell today from the false work of a new bridge being constructed across the Dan river, at Danville, Va., landing in the water, 25 feet below, but all of them will likely recover from the injuries sustained. The force of bridge-men was engaged in raising the iron work from the water when the machine used as a derrick fell from the platform causing the frame work to give away. The accident occurred about 150 yards from the shore.

Miss Anna Bell Miller, a supervising school principal, of Philadelphia, who was dismissed four years ago, for alleged offenses of a degenerate character toward younger female associates and who sued Dr. Charles H. Harvey, president of the school board, for $50,000 damages, charging conspiracy and libel, was this morning awarded a verdict of $14,960. Miss Miller tried for two years to get a lawyer to take her case and upon refusal herself took up the study of law and conducted her own case which ended in a victory with this morning's verdict.

A meeting of the prudential committee of the American Board of Foreign Missions, held in Boston, yesterday, the sub-committee previously appointed submitted a supplementary report relating to the protest against the retention of the gift of $100,000 of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, which with the report previously made on March 28, was unanimously adopted by the prudential committee. This report favors the retention of the gift.

Beef is up one cent in the Chicago markets. All packing companies advanced the price at the same time, and the advance has been made simultaneously in all the big cities. Pork advanced half a cent a pound at the same time. Further advance is in prospect.

Wheat.

Chicago, April 12.—With the arrival in Chicago today of John W. Gates, short in May wheat likely will sit up and take notice. Daily developments in the big May wheat deal in the local market in which Gates and some Wall street friends of his are the long, continue to be confined mostly to guesses as to when the bulls will go gunning. There was 24 cents advance in May wheat early today under the manipulative markets of the bulls and the covering of shorts. May sold at 115½ to 116½ off to 115½. July was strong selling at 87½ to 87½. They closed yesterday at 114½ and 87½ respectively.

Striking Miners Killed.

Duluth, Minn., April 12.—Two striking miners were killed and several injured in a riot at Hibbing last night. The riot was not over at midnight, the strikers then being engaged in firing on the men who remained at work.

Senator Martin.

Senator Martin last night gave out a statement regarding his alleged connection with railroads as an attorney. Prior to his election, he said, he represented the Chesapeake and Ohio in five counties for $1,000 a year. The president of the road, M. E. Ingalls, was one of his strongest antagonists when he ran for the Senate. Before entering upon his duties, Senator Martin said, he resigned this office, and has never represented any corporation since. He has, he said, appeared in suits against the Chesapeake and Ohio and nearly every railroad corporation in the State. Gov. Montague spoke at Buckingham Court House yesterday to a large crowd. He was followed by Congressman H. D. Flood in behalf of Senator Martin.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets active—recuperates and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

THE VENEZUELAN QUESTION.

"President Castro will not withdraw the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company case from the Venezuelan courts and will not resubmit the Olcott case to arbitration if the whole American army and navy come to Venezuela."

This statement of General Alejandro Ybarra, the Venezuelan Secretary of Foreign Affairs, reflects the spirit of the reply which President Castro made to the recent proposal of the American State Department for the arbitration of the Bermudez and Olcott cases.

It was generally rumored throughout Venezuela that the demand of the United States was little less than an ultimatum to General Castro and the reply of the Venezuelan President was awaited with interest. Predictions of intervention following the refusal of Castro to yield were freely made and there was much uneasiness when it was stated that the Venezuelan government had not only refused the demand to arbitrate the case, but had supplemented its refusal with a request that the United States declare whether it has any respect for the sovereignty and the courts of Venezuela.

Nearly two weeks have passed since Castro made his reply, and as no action has been taken by the United States and no further demands have been made, the last demand of the United States has gone the way of many previous requests for arbitration and the incident is practically closed as far as its discussion in Caracas is concerned.

President Castro and his advisors claim that to reopen the Olcott case would be an insult to Holland, as Mr. Barge, who acted as umpire, is a well-known Dutch diplomat. They also hold that as Venezuela was denied the right to have the arbitration of the Belgian water works case reopened, none of the other cases settled under the Washington protocols shall be reconsidered. It is emphatically denied in the reply of President Castro that there are any claims pending between the United States and Venezuela. He again reiterates that the New York and Bermudez Asphalt case, now in the Venezuelan courts, is a national and not an international one.

President Castro and the members of his cabinet take the ground that while the government stands for the general principle of arbitration, it will not have a case wrested from its courts to be carried before a board of arbitration.

The charges that Venezuela is not paying its obligations to creditor nations under the Washington protocols are denied by administration officials.

While diplomats who have inquired at the State Department have been informed that practically no action will be taken regarding Venezuela until President Roosevelt returns from his western trip, they also have received the intimation that if the exact text of Castro's answer comprises an insult to the American Minister it will not pass unnoticed.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but try for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent relief from all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At E. S. Leubenter & Sons' drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.
